DOING FAIRLY WELL

SO SAY THE DOCTORS TO-DAY.

The President's Condition After the Operation—Copious Flow of Landable Puss—The Doctors Satisfied and Cheerful.

operation—Copious Flow of Landable Puss.—The Doctors Satisfied and Cheerfal.

The President did not recover from the effects of yesterday morning's operation until after the evening examination. He suffered more or less throughout the afternoon from nausea, caused by the ether, and was not able to take the usual amount of nourishment. Milk and lime water was given him as soon as his stomach would bear it, and later in the day he had beef juice and meat extract, but was allowed no solid food. His pulse, owing to the gastric disturbance, was rather high during the afternoon, and at 4:30 o'clock went to 110, but his temperature did not rise correspondingly until about 7 o'clock, when it reached 101.9°. The febrile rise shown by this temperature was more pronounced than usual, but it was fully accounted for, in the judgment of the surgeons, by the operation and its consequent nervous excitement and by the nausea and other effects of the ether. The fever began to subside early in the evening and the President went to sleep quietly without anodynes. Since that time his pulse and temperature fell slowly and he has continued to improve. At midnight his pulse was 98, his skin moist and healthy in tone, and his temperature was not more than half a degree above normal.

Secretary Blaine to Minister Lowell.

At 11 o'clock last night Secretary Blaine telegraphed to Minister Lowell as follows:

At 11 o'clock last night Secretary Blame telegraphed to Minister Lowell as follows: "The President's condition at 11 o'clock tonight is considered by his physicians as encouraging. The increase of pulse and temperature is regarded as a natural result of the radical operation of this morning, in which a deep incision, three inches in length on the surface, was made. The same cause may possibly produce a still higher pulse and temperature to-morrow, after which a decided amelioration is confidently anticipated by the surgeons."

The Fresident's Condition This Morning.

The first bulletin issued to-day was as follows:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Aug. 9, 8:30 a.

Executive Mansion, Aug. 9, 8:30 a. m.—Notwitstanding the effects of yesterday's operation, the President slept the greater part of the night without the use of any anodyne. The febrile rise of yesterday afternoon slowly subsided during the night. This morning at 8:30 his pulse is 98; temperature, 99.5°; re piration, 19. Since yesterday afternoon shall quantities of liquid nourishment, giv o'at short intervals, have been retained, a fais morning larger quantities are beginning the morning larger Quantities.

Quiet Again Reigns.

Quiet Again Reigns.

Quiet once more reigns supreme at the White House and the feeling of alarm that has prevailed for the past three days has almost entirely disappeared. This morning's bulletin, while not as encouraging as was desired, shows that the President had a gier, Va.; Otis Mocers, Charles City, Va.
Of the other seven two were in Louisiana, two in Michigan, and three in Ohio.

The retirement of Commodore Carter will promote Capt. J. G. Walker as Chief of the Bureau of Navigation with the rank of commodore. Capt. Wm. D. Whiting was next in line for promotion, but his eyesight is so poor that he will have to be placed on the retired list before long. Capt. E. Y. McCauley will also become a commodore and Commanders M. Sicard and E. O. Mathews captains.

Was desired, shows that the President had a good night's rest and was able to take more nourishment this morning. The early callers this morning were Secretary Windom, the Nicaragnan Minister, Representative Valentine, of Nebraska, and Representative Shallenberger, of Pennsylvania. The latter showed great interest in the Potomac flats, and said he would do his utmost to cause their removal. As an impetus in that direction he had always urged the completion of the Washington monument. Maxino Jerez, Nicaragnan Minister, has been a constant visitor at the Wiltig. A MAIL CONTRACT CASE is now being considered by First Comptroller Lawrence, in which the question at issue is whether the 50 per cent. increase authorized to be paid under the statutes for expedited service upon a weekly route raised to a failer. the 50 per cent. increase authorized to be paid under the statutes for expedited service upon a weekly route raised to a daily is 50 per cent. upon the price paid for one trip per week. The profits of a large number of contractors hang upon the forthcoming decision.

Doing Fairly Well.

All the reports so far received from the sick-room are to the effect that the President is doing fairly well. His breakfast was very light this morning, as his stomach is still weak from the effects of the operation. It consisted merely of fresh milk, lime-water and allittle kumyss. The morning disclosed that there had been a Copious Flow of Healthy Pus from the last jucision. The drainage tube has been removed from the wound, as it is believed to be a source of irritation. Lint is now used instead in cleaning out the wound. It is placed in the wound and removed when saturated with pus and replaced with new pieces,

Dr. Reyburn said to-day that the President was looking well and was not near so excessively weak as had been represented. He also stated that the physicians were not alarmed at the President's condition, and as one proof of this, he said Dr. Agnew was going to return to Philadelphia this afternoon.

Dr. Boynton also stated about noon that the President was doing first rate, that the wound was now clear of all obstructions, and the President, though, of course, much weakened by the last relapse, was reacting weakened by the last relapse, was reacting nicely.

Dr. Agnew gave his opinion to-day that the President's prospects were now more favorable than at any time since the shooting, and expressed his entire satisfaction at the result of yesterday's operation.

The President had a pen in his hand this morning for the first time since he was stricken down. While the physicians were with him this morning, Dr. Bliss expressed a desire to test the President's nerves in a harmless sort of a way, and handing the patient, who was partly raised in bed, a pen and a tablet, asked him to write his name. The President did as desired, and wrote "James A. Garfield, August 9, 1881," in a clear, steady hand, and seemed pleased that he could write so well under the circumstances. The writing was very fair, and showed very little difference over the old familiar signature which is such a nice addition to a saug commission.

The following the latest was been a latest and a standard of the circumstances.

wound this morning it was found that pus had been discharging spontaneously and freely tarough the counter opening made yesterday. He has been quite comfortable this morning and taken a liberal supply of liquid nourishment. His pulse is now 101; temperature, 99.7°; respiration, 19.

D. HAYES AGNEW, J. K. BARNES, D. W. BLISS, J. J. WOODWARD, ROBT, REVBURN.

2 P. M. There is nothing new to be said about the President. His condition remains unchanged and no unfavorable symptoms have become manifest. One reassuring feature of his case was the departure of Dr. Agnew for Philadelphia this afternoon, which looks as if he had no great anxiety for the present. Dr. Hamilton will return here from New York by Thursday morning. He will be relieved in two or three days by Dr. Agnew.

A RUSHING TORRENT

Bursting from the Clouds and Sweep-ing Through a Colorado Town. DENVER, Col., Aug. 9.—A terrific storm cloud burst over Central City, Col., late yes-terday, and a volume of water 4 or 5 feet deep rushed down Nevada and Eureka streets deep rushed down Nevada and Eureka streets sweeping everything before it. Great boulders of nearly a ton in weight were rolled around like pebble stones. A large lot of debris was washed down at great speed, and piled up in large masses, all the way from Central City to Black Hawk. The roadways in the track of the flood were entirely destroyed. In one street the deposit of sand was four feet deep. There was only one loss of life reported—James Gerry. Reports of great damage by the storm come from Idaho Springs, where soveral houses, the railroad and other bridges were swept away. The damage at Central City and Idaho Springs is estimated at $250,000.

Funeral of Orville Grant

Funeral of Orville Grant.

N. Y. World 2th.

The funeral of the late Orville E. Grant took place yesterday at his former residence, No. 501 North Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J., whence the remains were taken to the Evergreen Cemetery, just near that city. The Rev. L. R. Dunn, D. D., Presiding Elder of the Newark Circuit, conducted the services. The pall-bearers were ex-Assemblyman William McKinley, Mr. William P. Thompson, ex-Assemblyman Moses F. Cary, Mr. Winans Whitehead, ex-Congressman Amos Clark, jr., and Sheriff S. B. Ryder. Gen. Grant was at the funeral with his mother, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Corbin. Mrs. Orville Grant was assisted to her carriage by Col. Fred Grant. Among those present were Mr. James E. Hedges, Dr. Morton, Postmaster Harris, Mr. Walton, Capt. McGowan, of the Star of the West, made famous in connection with the siege of Fort Sumter, and his wife; Mrs. James Moore and Mrs. John O. Stearns.

The five thousand or more "American heirs to the Jennings estate" will be inter-ested in learning that their English cousins are still at work endeavoring to secure the property, which at present amounts to £30,-000,000 sterling. According to the evidence given in a lawsuit at Leeds recently a local association has been formed with a cash capital—not all subscribed yet—of £2,000, the promoters of which agree to return twenty pounds for one to the subscribers in nice addition to a sauge commission.

Pulseilot at Nogn.

The following bulletin was issued at noon to day:

Executive Mansion. Aug. 0, 12:30 p. n.—At the dressing of the President's log funds.

Liverity pounds for one to the subscribers in the event of success—an offer which does not savor of rashness. The subscribers to such as association would hardly be justified in earlings tones of derision at the people who have the first week in August increased 06 per ple who have fairful in funds.

Liverity pounds for one to the subscribers in the understance in August 38 per cent. Increase, one $426,-000 against $306,000 last year. The caraings of the Milwankee and Lake Shore Raitroad the first week in August increased 06 per cent. Increase, or $426,-000 against $306,000 last year. The caraings of the Milwankee and Lake Shore Raitroad the first week in August increased 06 per cent. The crops look excellent along the line of the latter road.

THE ANGEL OF PEACE Hovering Over the European Conti-nent.

Berlin, Aug. 9.—Dispatches from all parts of the continent agree that Gladatone's speech at the Mansion House has produced a most excellent impression among all classes. Papers here are especially well pleased with it, and coupling it with the meeting of the emporers at Gastern, point to it as another guarantee of Europeaconeord. The language used by the journals relative to the Gartern meeting is uniformly to the effect that it has comented the entente coordinate between the States, and assures a continuation of peace.

Coming it Over a Yankee.

Coming it Over a Yankee.

Boston, Aug. 9.—A man well dressed and perfectly conversant with sporting matters, and representing himself as Ten Eyck, the oarsman, spent last week at West Medway. He said that he had concluded to make that place his future home, and would open a training school there if he could secure a suitable property. He entered into negotiations for the purchase of the Stanley House for $10,000, evincing great care in the transaction and about the title. The deed was to have been delivered yesterday, when he disappeared, owing the proprietor of the Stanley House $200 for loans during the negotiation.

Terrible Flow of Lava.

San Francisco, Aug. 9.—The steamer Zealand—in from Australia and the Sandwich Islands—brings news that the flow of lava from the volcano threatens still to cause serious losses at Hilo. It advanced more than a mile from June 26 to June 28, and was still moving on July 14 at the rate of twenty-five feet an hour. The water offers no obstruction to the lava, which at times runs six feet under water, still maintaining a white heat.

Killed on the Track.

New York, Aug. 9.—Miss Lena Homan and Mrs. Louis Farber were instantly killed on the Staten Island Railroad last night, at Seguin's Lane Crossing. The carriage in which they were riding was run down and crushed, and the lorse was killed. Mrs. Homan and Mrs. Higgins, who were in the carriage, were also badly hurt. Beecher's Bad Example.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Mrs. John Kline, of 273 Smith street, after living with her husband twenty-two years, to-day cloped with John Goepper, a carpenter, and the husband of her most intimate friend. Mrs. Kline took with her all her own clothing, all her husband's underwear, and $2,000 of his money.

Special to THE CHITIC.

NEW YORK, AUR, 9.—The most of the large traders in the stock market said last night that they were doing little or nothing at present. This at least was what Sage, Woerishoffer and Conner said that he expected Mr. Gould down from Tarrytown this morning, and it is expected that he will not leave for his vacation until after the railroad conference on Wednesday.

The railroad people are all very retieent about what will be done at the meeting, but it is believed that an agreement of some sort Special to THE CRITIC.

it is believed that an agreement of some sort has been arranged, but about as much adhas been arranged, but about as much additional importance is attached to the condition of the President as to anything else. Dr. Bliss telegraphed to Gen. Grant last night that he then thought the President was pretty sure to improve and that he would pull through.

The wholesale dry-goods dealers stop-

The wholesale dry-goods dealers stopping at the Branch say that the fall trade has set in briskly, and there is now a lively market for attumn and winter goods. The low rates for Western freights has stimulated the trade, which is earlier than usual. It is reported this morning that there are large sustaining orders in the market for Western Union, and there are free predictions of a stronger closing of the general list this afternoon, whatever may be the course of speculations this forenoon.

course of speculations this foremon.

There is a strong party in Chicago and Omaba, and some other specialties who propose an upward turn as soon as the Eastern railway matters are arranged.
